WILLIMANTIC

sistance of his neignbors. The damage is estimated at two hundred dol-

South Windham Fire Company Officers...

Carriers' Vacations.

The schedule of vacations for the

To Close for Holiday.

Announcement was made Tuesday that the plants of the Windham Silk

Several complaints have been made recently to Postmaster John O'Rourke of the destruction or mutilation of

Demurrer Overruled,

Justice Charles A. Capen on Tuesday rendered his decision in the case of Rockwood vs. Griffin in which a de-murrer was argued last Saturday by

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Charles P. Stearns' New Automobile Stalled On Crossing-Driver Escapes With Contusions on Head and

Charles Parker Stearns, of Andover, was painfully injured Tuesday morning, about six o clock, when the automobile he was driving was struck Childs; assistant, Charles Chamberby the train from Hartford, due in this city at 6:14. The accident occurred at the railroad crossing on the road from Bolton to Andover. There is a steep grade on tomobile he was driving was struck is a steep grade on either side of the crossing, which is built up to some height. Mr. Stearns, who has driven cars ever since they first came out, was trying out a new purchase. At the top of the grade and directly on the railroad tracks, his engine stalled. The train, coming at a good rate of speed, struck the machine, completive demolishing it, and scattering the contents of the truck, quantities of the boxes of hand soap, in all directions. The train was brought to a stop as quickly as possible and the injured man, whom the train crew though was dead, was picked up and company and help to company would be a company would be a company would be a company would be a company and the company and th though was dead, was picked up and brought to this city, where he was first identified by E. P. Chesbro. On his arrival in Willimantic the ambulance was summoned and he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where an examination showed that he was suffering from a contingion on the suffering from a contingion of this week for the annual inventory. suffering from a contusion on the head and another on the hip. At eight o'clock the injured man regaineight o'clock the injured man regained consciousness and the latest report from the hospital stated that his injuries are not of a serious nature.

Mr. Stearns is a cousin of Mrs. C.
E. Simonds of this city and is well known in this section.

of the destruction or mutination of private letter boxes on the rural and city routes. From indications the boxes have been the target of stones, presumably at the hands of small boys. Arrests will follow, if the violations continue, Mr. O'Rourke states.

$200 Fire Loss at Mansfield Depot.

A fire loss at Mansfield Depot Satorday night has been reported to the local agency which carries the insur-ance. The fire was in the home of Judson Larency, and was discovered about eleven thirty by one of the inmates of the house who was awakened by the smoke. The blaze was in a closet on the ground floor and was put out by Mr. Bonney, with the as-

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Surplus and Profits $175,000 Capital $100,000 Established 1832

Accuracy in accounting, courteous service, promptness and liberality in dealing, and a sound business policy in administering its own affairs, characterize THE WINDHAM NATIONAL BANK, which aims thereby to establish with customers relations that shall prove reciprocally permanent, pleasant and profitable.

The Windham National Bank WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Murray's Boston Store

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Traveling Time Is Here

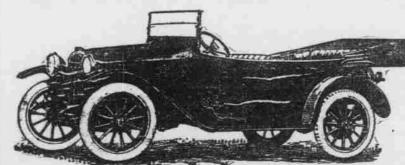

If you have caught the going fever come and let us show you through our stock of good Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases. Pick any of them regardless of price-see how sturdily they are made—frame well braced, handles tight and corners made for hard knocks.

We have said nothing about the cost because there is no need to. There's a range of prices to suit any purse and you can't buy better at any price.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

"EIGHT" $1,295 Completely Equipped "FOUR" $985

The biggest car at the price. lightest car of its class—less than 2,200 pounds. Luxurious upholstery; five passengers without crowding; steady, easy riding qualities equal if not superior to any high class car. It is necessary to ride behind the Detroiter "Eight" motor to realize fully what a remarkable mechanism the eight cylinder motor really is. A postal will give any prospective buyer a demonstration in any part of Eastern Connecticut.

T. R. SADD & CO.

Willimantic, Conn.

Distributors

of damages. It is likely that the deendant will appeal to the superio

Bids for Pupils' Transportation. The town school committee has advertised for bids for the transportation of school children in the various districts for next year. Bids will be received until July 6 by the transportation committee of the board.

> OBITUARY. Miss Sarah L. Peck.

Sarah Lyon Peck died at the private ospital in this city Tuesday morning, the was born in North Windham Dec. The following have been elected officers for the ensuing year of the South Windham fire department: Chief, Harries O. Eccleston; assistant 1843, the daughter of Pearl L. and Adeline (Brown) Peck, and was the third of a family of seven children, of whom only one, Mrs. Delia A. Robin-whom only one, Mrs. Delia A. Robinson, survives.

Miss Peck was of a genial disposition and had a wide circle of friends. She had traveled extensively in this country and Canada. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Robinson, and the following nephews and nieces: Charles Peck Crumb Geneva Crumb and Meselecter of the control of the country of the control of the country of the coun The schedule of Vacations for the carriers and clerks at the local post-office is now in process of arrangement by Postmaster John O'Rourke. Anson J. Olds and John N. Smith and Clerk Daniel A. Sullivan are the first toget away. Their vacations will be-Peck Crumb, Geneva Crumb and Mrs. Bernice Crumb Wyer, all of St. Louis, Mo., Alfred Peck of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Susan Peck McAneny of Detroit,

Mrs. Fred Taylor. Amanda Woodworth, widow of Fred Taylor, died at the home of her broth-Taylor, died at the home of her brother, Samuei R. Vergason, on Winter street, late Monday night, following a shock sustained a few days ago. She was born in Coventry Feb. 27, 1854, the daughter of Lucian and Ann (Canada) Woodworth, but had been a resident of this city for a number of years. She is survived by a daughter, Nellie, of New London, a sister, Mrs. George W. Moon, of Providence, R. I., and her brother. company and Helland Manufacturing compay would be closed Thursday of this week for the annual inventory.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. William A. King.

The funeral of Mrs. William A. King was held from the family home on Windham road at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. William S. Beard of the First Congregational church officiated. The large number in attend-ance and the profusion of floral offer-ings testified to the esteem entertained for Mrs. King by the entire communi-ty. The bearers were George E. Stiles, Allen B. Lincoln, C. R. Utley, James W. Hillhouse of this city, A. M. Cady of Hartford and H. F. Cady of Stafford. Burial was in the Willimantic ceme-tery, in charge of Funeral Director Jay M. Shenrad

Attorney George E. Hinman for the plaintiff and Patrick J. Danahey for the defendant. The suit was brought to recover for a fire loss on the plaintiff's land, from a fire started by the defendant on her land, and a demurrer was filed claiming that the statute under which the action was brought was superseded by the later act forbidding the setting of fires except by permit from the fire warden. Justice Capen overruled the demurrer and the case will now be heard on the question George W. LeValley. Funeral services for George W. Le-Valley were held at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the home of Mrs. E. L. Smith of Gurleyville, Rev. Mr. Ackley officiating. The body, in charge of Fu-neral Director Jay M. Shepard, will be to Brookfield, Mass., today for

George H. Sherman.

Suffering from Sprained Ankle. Frank M. Lincoln, who sprained his ankle last Thursday, left town Tues-lay for Pleasure Beach. Mr. Lincoln will probably be laid up four or five weeks by his accident.

Mrs. Crawford Entertains. Mrs. Dexter L. Crawford entertained of ormally Tuesday afternoon.

Brief Mention.

Mrs. Lucy Byles Wilson returned to Vethersfield Tuesday after a visit here. The train due in this city from Boson at 11.18 a. m. was 35 minutes late

Mr. and Mrs. William Costello were n Providence Tuesday, going in their Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Alpaugh start Thursday, July 1, for Maine, where they will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lincoln returned o New Haven Tuesday after ten days' visit here with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Johnson of Bos- The co are guests of Mrs. William Van-

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Calnen have returned to New York after ten days' visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark, manager of Loomer opera ouse, accompanied by Mrs. Clark, left is the all important question for the housewife just now, and many changes are necessary - a new Carpet, some Curtains, a Chair, some Bedroom Furniture or a room to be Papered.

Spring Cleaning

Take a list of the things you need to improve the home and go to

LINCOLN'S Furniture Store

Main and Union Streets.

DR. F. C. JACKSON, Dentist

Painless Extracting and Filling a Specialty Telephone

HIRAM N. FENN UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER 62 Church St. Willimantic, Ct. Lady Assistant

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Elmore & Shepard Funeral Director and Embalmer 60-62 North St., Willimantic

Tuesday for Providence, where they will remain for the summer season. In Hartford Tuesday were P. S. Hills, L. S. Casey, Miss Ruth Williams, Henry Hatch, S. A. Peckham, J. C. Tracy, Miss Annie Shea, Mrs. Dennis

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cotter and family, Miss Mary Mullen, William Foran, Sr., the Misses Mary and Rose Hickey are attending the Cotter-Hurley wedding in Providence today. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Foran left her Tuesday to attend the wedding of Mr Foran's cousin, Miss Adelaide Huriey, and T. J. Cotter of this city. The cere-mony takes place today (Wednesday).

Personals.

W. C. Norris spent Tuesday in Win-sted. M. E. Sullivan is in Plainfield for few days.

Miss Helen Burke is visiting friends in Sterling Mrs. W. J. Adams is spending a week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alpaugh are spending the summer in Maine. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith and the

JEWETT CITY

Missionary Birthday Social With Novel Features-Brother of Mrs. W. J. Brickley Crushed In Elevator.

A novel and instructive entertainment was given in the Baptist vestry Tuesday evening by the Women's Mission Circle of the Baptist church, of which Mrs. J. A. Spidell is president. It was a missionary birthday octal. There were twelve small tables representing each month of the year. Twelve ladies were in charge of the tables at which were girls in costumes representing a missionary. Mrs. B. R. Gardner was in charge of the January table, the missionary being Miss Alice Gilbert representing Miss Evelyn Brownell, missionary to the Italians and Jews. February table, Miss Ila Brown, Miss Louise Davis as Italians and Jews. February table, Miss Ila Brown, Miss Louise Davis as Miss Lydia Huber, a Porto Rican missionary. March, Miss Ruth Gray, Miss Esther Frink as Miss Selina Lagergren, Philipine missionary. April, Mrs. Charles Armstrong, Miss Mabel Frink as Miss Buckel, Japanese missionary, May, Miss Josephine Miller, Miss Enid Spidell as Miss Isabel Crawford, an Indian missionary, June, Miss Mabel McBroome, Miss Esther King as Miss Lena Garrell, matron of King as Miss Lena Garrell, matron of an Alaskan Orphanage. July, Miss Nellie Franklin, Miss Ruth Davis as Miss Katherine Mable, missionary to Africa, August, Miss Elizabeth Clarke, Miss Sadle Haddad, as Dr. Cronkhite of Burnah

The body of George H. Sherman, who died in Hampton Sunday, will be taken to New Bedford this morning for burial Sunday. The body was prepared for burial by Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard.

MISS Sadie Haddad, as Dr. Cronknite of Burmah. September, Mrs. May Blake, Miss Doris Myott as Miss Jennie Duggan of Mexico. October, Miss Esther Gray, Helen Gray as Miss Gresbecker of China. November, Miss Katherine Babcock, Miss Edith Butts and Miss Sadie Haddad, as Dr. Cronknite of Burmah. September, Mrs. May Blake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss Bake, Miss Borten Bake, Miss as Miss Sarah Kelley of Ongole, India.
December, Mrs. F. H. Gilbert, Miss Ellen Wilcox as Miss Sarah Owen of the Mather school in South Carolina.
There was an entertaining program There was an entertaining program during which the missionaries marched into the room, each carrying a birthday cake, oh which were as many lighted candles as the number of the month. These missionaries each gave a brief account of the work they represented. Miss Ila Brown played a mazurka for a violin solo, and Mrs. G. H. Prior and Miss Katherine Babcock sang a duet, I Waited for the Lord, Miss Elizabeth Clarke played a Schubert Impromptu as a plane solo. Rev. G. H. Strouse of Norwich, who was formerly a missionary in Africa, gave a talk on his work at that time.

Sandwiches, cake and lemonade were served at the birthday tables, every one present being asked to go to the table which stood for his particular birthday. Birthday bags had been distributed previous to the social, which were returned at the entertainment filled with the amount of money representing the date of birth The committee was Mrs. G. H. Prior.

money representing the date of birth The committee was Mrs. G. H. Prior, Mrs. E. C. Willcox and Mrs. A. M.

Clarke Collected Many Flowers,

One hundred and eighty-seven flow er specimens were brought into the seventh grade. Miss Mary M. Brown eacher, at the Riverside Grammar school. Sixty-two of these were colected by Miss Ellen Willcox.

HIS SAVINGS HELPED HIM.

HON, LYMAN J. GAGE, Who Saved to Such a Good Purpose That He Was U. S. Treasurer.

Out in California, amid flowers and tropical verdure, lives a man whose life should be an example to every umbitious youth in Willimantic.
When but fourteen years of age
Lyman J. Gage was compelled to leave school and found work in the post office at Rome, N. Y. In another year he was mail agent on a rallway and soon afterward became errand boy in country bank, rising to junior clerk

Feeling that the West held his op-portunity, he took his savings to Chi-cago when nineteen and began life there as a clerk in a planing mill. When, through the stress of a panic, the mill closed, young Lyman remained as a watchman to avoid using his savings for his living expenses. At twenty-two he was again a bank clerk, in six months a teller, in a year assistant cashier: then successively cashier, vice-president and president. From 1902 to 1906 Lyman J. Gage, the boy who was thrown on his own resources at fourteen, served his country. as Secretary of the Treesury. He saved something out of every dollar he earned. So can you. To-day start on the road to Prosperity by opening

The Willimantic Savings Institute Incorporated 1842

H. C. Murray, President N. D. Webster, Treasurer

CRUSHED IN ELEVATOR. Patrick E. Suullivan Met Tragic Death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brickley have returned from Prospect Heights, Edgewood, N. J., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Brickley's brother, Patrick E. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan was employed at Tiffany's in New York, and was killed instantly by being crushed in an elevator. He leaves his wife and five children, the oldest of which is eleven years. He was forty-one years of age. He is remembered in Jewett City, as nineteen years ago he lived here with his sister. Brevities.

Mrs. T. F. Lewis is preparing to go to Moosup, where she is to act as a housekeeper for Dr. Allen. Samuel G. Norman is ill with typhoid fever, and under the care of a graduate nurse.

PLAINFIELD

Social Evening at Miss Mytle Whip-ple's-Dr. A. M. Chase and Bride Return to Town - Ivy Poisoning daughter, Miss Winnifred Smith, have gone to Provincetown, Cape Cod, to re-main for the summer months. A number of friends of Miss Myrtle Whipple gathered at her home on the Sterling road Monday evening and enjoyed a sociable time. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present included Aldea Lamoine, Helene Noel, Myrtle Whipple, May Duxbury, Norman Whipple, William Noian, Albert Moreland, Christopher Krauss, Philip Moreau and George Willet.

A car load of seats for the new

A car load of seats for the theater arrived Monday.

Coming From Galveston, John and Thomas Duff left Galves-ton, Texas, the 26th, for a trip north which will include a visit to Plainfield and Norwich friends. Joseph Boyer is ill and unable to Girls' Friendly society of St.

Paul's chuch are planning a cold meat and salad supper and an entertain-Dr. Chase and Bride Return, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Chase re-Monday from their wedding M. M. Society Meets.

The M. M. society met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Harold Lewis. A large number of members were present. After business there was a social hour. Refreshments were was a served by the hostess.

Hector Gauthier of Taftville was the Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. King and their daughters, Dorothy and Alice, visited New London Sunday. Mrs. King and the girls will remain for a couple of weeks as guests of Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. Higgins.

Mrs. Lottie Thorpe and daughter,
Nettle, Miss Mary McAvoy, Mrs. John
Nolan and Michael McAvoy, motored to Providence Monday. The farmers in this section wel-comed the rain which fell Saturday and Sunday. The crops were begin-ning to show the lack of water.

Shower Stopped Game. In the match games on the Plain-field Croquet ground Sunday, Plain-field led the St. Joseph's team of Taft-

Offender Given Another Chance. In the morning session of the Jus-ice court Monday, before Justice Bentice court Monday, before Justice Ben-jamin Briggs, a local young man was arraigned on a charge of Sunday drunkenness and pleading guilty was fined $1 and costs and was released on his promise to get on the wagon and go to work. In this particular case, the man had been drinking all week and being unable to procure real iquor, had appeased his longing with undiluted Jamaca ginger. George McIntire was in town on

Case of Ivy Poisoning. Alme Bergeron, the mill painter, has been unable to work for several days on account of poisoning with ivy.

COLCHESTER

About 160 at Reunion of Bacon Academy Monday Evening - Graduating Exercises Held Tuesday Afternoon-Much Interest in Programmes.

The fourth triennial reunion of the Bacon Academy Alumni association was held in Grange hall Monday even-ing. The gathering was the largest that has been held since centennial year. About 160 sat at the tables. Folowing was the menu furnished by the adies of the grange:

Chicken Pattles. Saratoga Chips.
shes. Olives.
llad. Vegetable Salad.
s. Pickles.
sgue. Stuffed Eggs. Radiehes, Lobster Salad, Jellies, Cold Tongue.

Strawberries with Cream.
Ice Cream. Cake.
Coffee.
After the banquet, the following was Toasts. Daniel E. Irwin, '90 Toastmaster.

"The memory of the past will stay, and half our joys renew." The Spirit of Baconia. Ernest Elgart, '06
"Be true to your word, and your

Commencements 1890-1900, Edward M. Day, '90

"Long, long be my heart with such memories filled." Patriotism, Rev. William A. Keefe "Whatever makes men better Chris-tians, makes them good citizens."

Bacon Academy and Her Work, Prof. C. E. Farnham "Without knowledge there can be no sure progress."
The Trustees. Hon. Hamilton Wallis
"The best of prophets of the future is

Short speeches were also made by a number of former principals and grad-iates. It was the best reunion that has been held and the speeches were

Following are the officers of the association: President, John F. O'Con-nell; vice presidents, Dr. A. L. Stebnell; vice presidents, Dr. A. L. Stebbins, Mrs. Emmeline Ransom, Jacob Elgart, A. A. Baker, Michael O'Conneil, Edward M. Day, Rev. M. A. Sullivan, D. D., Dr. Edwin B. Cragin, Miss Nora Kelly, Miss Carolyn Smiley, Dr. James J. Tynan; secretaries, Miss Rose F. Smith, Miss Sarah W. Bigelow, Miss Ruth Carver; treasurer, George V. Cavanaugh; executive committee, Dr. A. L. Stebbins, Miss Sylvine Norton, Miss Ella S. Cragin, Miss Kathryn O'Con-Ella S. Cragin, Miss Kathryn O'Con-nell, Ernest Elgart. Academy Commencement

The day being an ideal one, the at-tendance at the annual graduating exercises of Escon academy was large. The exercises were held in the Congregational church Tuesday at 3.15 p. m. The programme follows: Music, Bridal Rose, Lavalle, school orchestra; processional, March of the Priests, from Athalie, orchestra; invocation; saluta-tory, Edward Hobart McCall; music, Venetian Romance, Hildreth, Mandolin club; address, Hon. Richard P. Free-man of New London, representative in congress; music, The Lost Chord, Sullivan, Glee club; valedictory, Miss Anna Bernstein; music, Columbia Be-loved, Denizetti, school chorus; presentation of diplomes, Alden A. Baker; award of Otis prizes, Hon. Erastus S. Day. (The Otis prizes are four Webster's New International Dictionaries awarded for proficiency in United States history and spelling); benedic

Make Your Dollar Produce More in a New York City Hotel

$2.50 PER DAY A pleasant room with private bath, facing large open court.
(Not one room, but one hundred of them.)

An excellent room with private $3.00 PER DAY bath, facing street, southern exposure. (Not one room, but eighty-seven of them.)

Also attractive Room without Bath $1.50 per day. The Restaurant-prices are most moderate.

600 Rooms 400 Baths

LOCATION One minute from 5 of the largest department atores. Five minutes' walk from 19 principal the

Within a block of the Fifth Avenue shop-Every line of transportation passes the Fifth Avenue 'Bus line and principal surface lines.

The Hudson Tubes across the street.

Elevated Railroad Station across the street. Subway Station three minutes away.

Grand Central Station within seven min-Pennsylvania Railroad Station just end block away.

THE HOTEL

EVERYTHING NEW AND MODERN. A FIVE MILLION DOLLAR HOTEL. EQUIPPED TO SATISFY THE MOST

All Baggage Transferred Free to and from Pennsylvania Station.

THE HOTEL MARTINIQUE

On Broadway, 32d to 33d Street, New York. CHARLES LEIGH TAYLOR WALTER CHANDLER, JR. WALTER S. GILSON General Manager Vice President

tion; music, March, Cobb, school or-

The class of 1915 consisted of ten members and their motto was "Non Administrar! Sed Administrare." The following were the graduates and their Classical Course.

Anna Bernstein, thesis, Popular Gov-Anna Bernstein, thesis, Popular Government in Oregon; Eugene Mathers Clifford, thesis, Prohibition in the United States; Edward Hobart McCall, thesis, Napoleon as a Military Genius; M. Vincent O'Connell, thesis, Early Capital and Labor; Elizabeth Irene Shea, thesis, The American Red Cross; Its Work in the Present European War.

General Course.

General Course William B. Gerhardt, thesis, Farming in Organized Business Proposition; Charles Freestone Kramer, thesis, Why Should Enter Agriculture; Andrew

News in General, O. H. A. Milhan and family of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived at their summer home on Elmwood Heights Sunday for the season. They made the trip in Colchester visitor Monday.

Joseph Bedard of Norwich was the guest of friends in town Monday. Joseph Bedard of Norwich was the guest of friends in town Monday.
Clayton D. Barton of East Hampton was in town Monday.
Rev. D. R. O'Donnell, Rev. Father Sullivan and Postmaster J. J. Sullivan in Willimantic.

were in East Hampton Tuesday at-tending the funeral of Thomas W. R. A. Storrs has returned from a few days' visit at his home in Cheshire. Prof. Walter B. Spencer of West Hartford and Prof. Royal A. Moon of Stonington, former principals of the high school, were in town Monday and Tuesday to attend commencement ex-

Mrs. Harry A. Elgart left Tuesday for a few days' visit with relatives in New York.

New Glossary Needed. Reinforced glossary of war and med-cal terms is sadiy needed. Just confuses the ordinary mortal to read that a man was wounded between the Dniester and the Pruth.—New York Evening Telegram.

The Chautauqua Uplift.

Latest affinity is that between peanut politics and grape juice diplomacy.—Wall Street Journal.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

School Board Fills Several Vacancies -Death of Thomas Simons-Get-Ready for Community Fourth of July.

The monthly meeting of the Town school committee was held at the library Monday evening. All members were present excepting Mr. Glaz-ier, who was unavoidably absent. Several bills were approved and some of the vacancies in the teaching force were filled. Miss Florence M. Quilty of Springfield a recent graduate of Smith college was elected teacher of French, German and History in the Stafford High school. Miss Annie Herring of Rockville was reelected to have charge of the Crystal Lake school, in place of Miss Davis, resigned. The vacancies still existing are Luil district, Orcutiville and Fourth grade in the Spring school Fourth grade in the Spring school.

Death of Thomas Simons. Thomas Simons, 70, died at his home in Stafford Hollow, Mondy night after a month's illness. Besides his wife, he is survived by four sons, Walter of Stafford, Thomas of Stafford Springs, William of Monson, George of New Hampshire, and two daughters, Mrs. John Lynch of Mon-son, and Mrs. Timothy Collins of New Britain.

John Mahan of Hartford has be

To Celebrate the Fourth, Preparations are being made for the community Fourth of July next Monday. There will be athletic sports in the forenoon. In the afternoon the Monson baseball team will try conclu-sions with the Staffords on Hyde park. There will be fireworks in the eve-ning and band concerts afternoon and

And Powder the Face. It is a safe bet those English women companies for home defense will in-trepidly face the powder.—Columbia (S. C.) State.

The Chautauqua Uplift.

There's a body, a crispness and true corn flavour to the

New Post Toasties

that are unequaled by any other corn flake.

Ordinary, common-place "corn-flakes" do not appeal to one after having once enjoyed the surprising goodness of these superior bits of toasted corn meats.

Try the New Post Toasties-your grocer has them now: